GENERAL INFORMATION:

MIDWINTERS ENTERTAINMENT:

What do plays-within-plays, waiting rooms, fairytale princesses, and ghosts have in common? This year's MidWinter's Productions! Come see four hilarious, student-directed one-act plays this Thursday, 1/19 & Friday, 1/20 at 7:00 p.m.

There's Cut directed by Isabel Christensen, a play about a play about a play about.... a play? Which show are they acting out and who's the director?!? Try to figure out what's a scene and what's reality when even the "actors" don't know!

Need something a little more straightforward? Then there's Awaiting Patients by Christopher Cartwright directed by Norah Leuwerke and Cade Boersma. What do you do when you're stuck in a waiting room with some very ...odd other patients? Find out this Thursday and Friday!

Disney princesses and Shakespeare tragedy, not exactly a traditional combo, but Game of Tiaras directed by Eden Anderson is a hilarious example of stories gone wrong. Come see what happens when Belle, Cinderella, and Ellie all compete to rule jolly Old England. When you play the Game of Tiaras, you win or you die.

Last, but not least, is the student written show Spook Chasers by Reece Hunerdosse. Not to be confused with a trademarked, paranormal investigative group -- Spook Chasers follows a band of ... ghost hunters called in to rid a museum of its ghosts. Directed by Mikey Crabb and Reece Hunerdosse this lively parody will have you dying of laughter.
